This volume, like its predecessor of the same title, offers the first daily account of the war forced upon the State of Israel by Hamas's brutal attack on its southern communities near the Gaza Strip on October 7, 2023. Focusing on the second six months of that war, Professor Monty Penkower examines in detail its local, regional, and international significance. Joining extensive research and a limpid prose, as in his many other books on modern Jewish history, this prize-winning historian again displays a definitive mastery of his craft.

PRAISE

“Monty Penkower’s richly detailed and scrupulously documented chronicle of Hamas’ war against Israel and the Jews makes for necessary if sobering reading. Drawing upon his lifetime of scholarship, Penkower cuts through the inevitable fog of war and provides invaluable narrative and primary source material for all future students of the subject.”

—Jonathan D. Sarna, University Professor and Joseph H. & Belle R. Braun, Professor of American Jewish History (emeritus), Brandeis University

“The two years that have passed since Hamas’s terrorist attack on 7 October have not diminished the magnitude of the blow Israel suffered that day. During this period, however, Israel has succeeded in striking Hamas, Hizballah, and ultimately Iran—the forces behind the 7 October attack—in ways that are likely to redraw the map of the Middle East and reshape the region’s political landscape. Monty Noam Penkower’s Awakening to Radical Islamist Evil: The Hamas War Against Israel and the Jews, Volume II, forms part of his series that seeks to document and interpret these two pivotal years. This book, as was Vol. I, is a must for anyone interested in the events that have shaped the region to date, and for those seeking to understand the direction in which the Middle East may now be heading.”

—Prof. Eyal Zisser, Vice Rector of Tel Aviv University
