This volume, like its two predecessors of the same title, offers the first daily account of the war forced upon the State of Israel by Hamas's brutal attack on its southern communities near the Gaza Strip on October 7, 2023. Focusing on the third six months of that war, Professor Monty Penkower examines in detail its local, regional, and international significance. Joining extensive research and a limpid prose, as in his many other books on modern Jewish history, this prize-winning historian again displays a definitive mastery of his craft.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Monty Noam Penkower is Professor Emeritus of Modern Jewish History, Machon Lander Graduate School of Jewish Studies, Jerusalem. He is the award-winning author of many books on the rise of the State of Israel, on the Holocaust, and on American Jewish history.

PRAISE

*“In Awakening to Radical Islamist Evil, Monty Penkower has produced a 'rough first draft of history' full of erudition, humanity and written with passion. Few of the protagonists in this conflict escape his razor-sharp pen as he disentangles the complex story of the Gaza war. His sympathy is directed to its innocent victims, both Jews and non-Jews. By any measure, this is a masterful and authoritative account of the third six months of the Hamas war against Israel and the Jews and essential reading for anyone wishing to understand Israel's right to defend itself.”*

— Anthony McElligott, Emeritus Professor of History, University of Limerick, Ireland

“Monty Penkower’s richly detailed and scrupulously documented chronicle of Hamas’ war against Israel and the Jews makes for a necessary if sobering reading. Drawing upon his lifetime of scholarship, Penkower cuts through the inevitable fog of war and provides invaluable narrative and primary source material for all future students of the subject.”

—Jonathan D. Sarna, University Professor and Joseph H. & Belle R. Braun. Professor of American Jewish History (emeritus), Brandeis University
